Some cookies allow us to enable specific functions or to improve your navigation experience, while others allow us to analyse the way you consult our websites in order to improve it.

Some are strictly necessary, while others help us to personalise your navigation by remembering your preferences and settings.

By navigating on our websites, you implicitly accept the use of:

- All technical and session cookies, which are stored during the session laps time

- All visitor preferences (such as language), which are stored permanently

- All server logs, which are kept for a limited period only

"Personal data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ("data subject"). An identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to his or her physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity.

If you prefer not to be tracked, you can also activate the "Do Not Track" (DNT) setting on your browsers. It will guarantee you we will not track your navigation activity at all. These "Do Not Track" settings are available in most browsers.
